THE NEW RAILING AROUND THE CAPITOL.—It will be remembered that the last Legislature of Kentucky passed an act, authorizing the Governor to appropriate means not exceeding $10,000 from the State Treasury, for the erection of an iron railing around the Capitol Square. Gov. POWELL, in accordance with that act, let the contract out to the lowest bidder. Messrs. CRAIK & KNIGHT, of this city, agreed, in their proposal, to building the railing for $8,000, which being the lowest bid, was accepted, and the fence is now in process of erection by Messrs. How & Co., of Philadelphia. When completed, it will add greatly to the appearance of the Capitol, the old wooden fence, which has for a long time been standing, having made every thing about it, appears to disadvantage. We have examined the workmanship upon the railing, and according to our judgment, it will endure the storms and jars to which it will be subjected, for a long time, and be an ornament to the square and the city.

WE call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of our friend G. H. DALINGHAUS which appears in our paper. Mr. D's Restaurant is undoubtedly one of the best in the West, not only in the style in which everything is arranged, but also from the superior quality of all his provisions and liquors. We advise our readers, when they visit Lexington to be sure and give Henry a call if they want to procure sumptuous eating.

WE refer our readers to the advertisement headed "Wanted." We are intimately acquainted with the person desiring the situation, and can confidently recommend him to the favorable consideration of all who may wish to secure his services.

WE COME WITH SONGS TO GREET YOU.—J. J. CUMMIS & Co's Celebrated Opera Troupe will appear once more, and for the last time in Old Fellows Hall tonight. This is undoubtedly an excellent company and the proprietor has achieved for it a reputation unsurpassed by that of any other troupe in the country. Besides being excellent performers, the band is composed of true gentlemen. Mr. E. H. PASSMORE, their polite attendant, is an old acquaintance of ours, and we have no hesitancy in asserting that he would travel with no band that was devoid of merit. We know our readers will embrace this last opportunity of hearing them.

WE call attention to the advertisement of MADAME DE VRIES, which appears in our paper this morning. The reputation that Madame Rosa has achieved, since she has been in this country, renders it unnecessary for us to say anything in the way of commendation. Her company is composed of the very best operatic talent, while the pieces selected are the finest gems of the opera. In a place when there is as much musical taste and refinement, Madame De Vries, need have no fear, but what she will be greeted upon her appearance with large and appreciative audiences.

IN glancing over the columns of the Boston Daily Times, (which by the way is one of the most reliable papers published in the Union,) we were forcibly struck with the remarks of the editor in regard to the lying propensities of the Eastern Telegraph Lines. For instance, immediately upon the conclusion of the Illinois elections, the telegraph published in Boston the assertion that not a single candidate in favor of the Nebraska Bill had been re-elected, when the fact was the Hon. Wm. A. RICHARDSON, a prominent leader of the Nebraska party in the last House, had been re-elected by a handsome majority from the fifth district. Hon. T. L. HARRIS, Nebraska Democrat over Hon. RICHARD YATES, Anti-Nebraska. Mr. Harris has 400 majority.—Hon. S. A. MARSHALL, Nebraska Democrat from the ninth district. Thus we see that the instruments were made the means of conveying garbled and untruthful despatches, in order that the interests of intriguing politicians might be subserved. Lesses of telegraph lines, and President's throughout the Union would find it more beneficial to themselves, to correct this evil, so that the public may be able to place some confidence in the reports circulated by the various lines.

Mrs. BRADLEY, of Elkton, in this State, died very sudden in that place, on Thursday last. She had not been complaining, and was apparently in good health up to the moment of her death. She died in her chair.

The Henderson Courier is creditably informed that WILLIAM G. HUGHES, of Morganfield, will be a candidate for Congress in the first district of State.

Governor POWELL is at present in Henderson.

The Evansville Enquirer runs up the name of Gen. JOSEPH LANE for President in 1856.

On Saturday, the 18th inst., a lad, son of G. A. Suggs, of Henderson, accidentally shot a small negro boy, (say 12 years of age,) in the house of his father, killing him almost instantly.

Hon. JOHN B. THOMPSON, Senator in Congress, from this State, and Major General SCOTT, arrived in Washington City on the 21st inst.

Hon. LARRY BORD, while on his route to Washington City, was complimented, at Columbus with a supper by Gov. MEULE, at which Col. ALLEN, Col. McARDY, and a number of other distinguished persons, were present. This is a just compliment to a stern and sterling Democrat.

What a BUTCHER!—A man in Detroit has been fined $50 and sent to jail for six days, having whipped his wife the second night after marriage.

DREADFUL SUICIDE IN LOUISVILLE.—We learn from the Louisville Courier, of Saturday last, that a German, residing on Jefferson street, had committed suicide about two miles from that city, at Glatfisch Meyer's, a gardener. He discharged the contents of a shot gun into his body and expired before any assistance could be rendered. The cause for the commission of this rash deed is generally stated to be the faithlessness of the wife of the poor fellow. She sometime since deserted him, making tracks for parts unknown with some man she loved better than her liege lord.

The Pennsylvania papers are urging the erection of a new government house in Harrisburg.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF NEW JERSEY.—The following are the official returns as received at the office of the Secretary of State. The Trenton Gazette estimates the whole number of votes cast for the Whig and American candidates in the State, at 40,582, and for their opponents, 33,852. Whig and American majority 6,730. The total number of votes cast at the late election, was 79,418. Last fall the whole number was 72,842 of which Price received 38,312, and Haywood 34,530.—Price's majority being 3,782. It will be seen that the Whig vote has been increased by 6,052, while that of their opponents has fallen off 4,460.

It is still uncertain which party has the majority in the Legislature. The Senate will stand 10 Democrats, 8 Whigs, and 2 Americans. The Assembly will stand 24 Whigs, 24 Democrats, 5 Americans, 2 Temperance Democrats, and 5 Independent Democrats. The Gazette says a party opposed to the present administration, can no doubt be rallied in the Legislature, sufficient to constitute a majority.

CONGRESS—FIRST DISTRICT.—Clawson, (Whig,) 6,269; Mulford, (dem.), 4,383; Hazleton, (temp.), 3,949—majority for Clawson, 1,886.

SECOND DISTRICT.—Robbins, 10,539; Rue, 7,769—majority for Robbins, 2,770.

THIRD DISTRICT.—Bishop, 9,951; Lilly, 7,603—majority for Bishop, 1,448.

FOURTH DISTRICT.—Osborne, (Independent Anti-Nebraska,) 6,816; Vail, 7,251—majority for Vail, 465.

FIFTH DISTRICT.—Pennington, 8,137; Darcey, 6,816—majority for Pennington, 1,321.

Included in the above table are 230 votes in Hudson county, east for A. C. M. PENNINGTON, returned as "scattering," because the name was not printed in full on the ballots.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The great temperance meeting comes off on Tuesday night of this week at the court house. R. H. BUCKLEY, Esq., and others will address the meeting. The object of the meeting is to appoint delegates for the city to the State convention of the temperance union who meet in Louisville on the 18th of December, to take into consideration the subject of nominating candidates for Governor and Lieut. Governor.

The Circuit Court of this county commenced its session, on yesterday morning, his Honor Judge Goodloe presiding. There is a large docket we understand.

The Federal Court is still in session.—Young West was sentenced on last Saturday evening to the Penitentiary for ten years for robbing the mail. The jury in the case of SNACK-KLORU retired yesterday morning. We do not know whether they have made a verdict yet or not.

RATHER UNAPPROPRIATE.—The Bishop of London is said to be the owner of the Paddington estate, which is worth the enormous sum of a hundred thousand pounds sterling per year.

DR. GRAHAM'S CASE.—The exceptions in Dr. Graham's case came up for argument in the New York Superior Court on Saturday, the 21st, and the Court, after an elaborate investigation, granted a writ of error on the exceptions, returnable at the next quarter term. The judgment of the Court of Oyer and Terminer is therefore suspended, and no further action will be had until the joint error shall have been disposed of.

During the week ending Nov. 20, ten thousand seven hundred and forty-three hogs were received in New York by the Erie Railroad.

HOG KILLING IN LOUISVILLE.—The Journal, of yesterday, contains the following: During the fore part of last week the weather was too warm for killing, and active operations were only resumed on Saturday. The number killed around the Falls and in pens up to last evening was as follows:

	Killed.	In pens
Hull, Hunt, & Co.	22,800	3,500
Owsley, Kinnaird, & Co.	16,015	3,000
Richard Atkinson	12,820	5,000
A. S. White & Co.	12,500	4,000
Jarvis & Co.	12,485	1,500
Huffman & Co.	7,000	1,200
Hamilton, Riceyett, & Co.	9,500	none.
Jeffersonville	3,000	—
New Albany estimated	3,000	—
Total,	95,321	20,203

It is proper to state that the number of hogs reported by Mr. Atkinson are those included he has in New Albany.

In regard to prices we have no change to report except that the market is very firm at our last week's quotation, say $4.50 from the hogs. One little lot sold yesterday at $4.25 cash, and 800 head, not to average less than 160 lbs., at $4.50 cash, and a few lots of 200 to 300 head at $5.40, four months.

T. D. JONES, the celebrated sculptor, has been selected to execute the proposed colossal bronze statue of "Tom Coarx." The statue is to cost from $15,000 to $20,000.

There have been great revivals of religion in the Baptist Churches at Keene, Versailles, Great Crossings, (Scott co.) and Mt. Vernon, (Woodford co.) Upwards of 200 persons have joined the four churches named.

The London Times speaks of the Cossacks, as they appeared at the recent battles in the Crimea, as resembling "mounted" Yankees, in their agility, intelligence, irregular costume, and individual self-reliance.

We learn that ROBERT W. JOHNSON has been elected unanimously to the United States Senate, by the Arkansas Legislature.

There has been a 'cold snap' of weather at the South, which has greatly improved the health. Ice was frozen firmly at Baton Rouge on the night of the 12th inst.

An able article from the Washington Union is copied into our paper this morning. We call attention to it.

Wm. CHILDRESS, formerly a citizen of Louisville, committed suicide at the U. S. Hotel, in Memphis, on Sunday last, by shooting himself through the head with a pistol.

The Maysville Express mentions Hon. Alvin Duvall, of Scott, as a suitable candidate of the Democratic party for Governor.

MONSTRIOUS SWINE.—GEORGE HENDSON, of Maysville, Mason county, Ky., grew on his lot, the present season, six pigs of the Irish grayer and Berkshire variety, which averaged five hundred pounds, gross weight. On being slaughtered, they netted four hundred and thirteen pounds on the average, made fourteen kegs of lard, one barrel of ground sausage meat, and an abundance of soups, &c.

THE NEXT PRESIDENT.—The Frankfort Yeoman of yesterday contains a communication speaking in very high terms of Governor POWELL, and recommending him as the man for the next President. If LAZARUS comes forth he'll make the people and no mistake. It would be a most excellent selection.—Low. Times, of yesterday.

We cheerfully concur with our contemporary in the notice above. We find our Democratic exchanges throughout the State, all uniting in commending Gov. POWELL as the man for the Presidency, and we hope that he may be enabled to make the race, so that Kentucky may show to the world a model President.

Mr. EOWIS FORTNEY, the tragedian, was the Know Nothing candidate for Congress in the Seventh New York district. He is, however, among the defeated.

The Frankfort Yeoman appears in a new and very beautiful suit of type. Its gentility we can commend, its politics we simply abominate.—Low. Courier.

When our friends of the Courier speak typographically, we regard his opinion very highly, but when he attempts the politician we pay no attention to him.

LEXINGTON AND DANVILLE RAIL ROAD.—Since the accession of Gen. LESLIE COMBS, to the Presidency of the above mentioned road, we notice that the affairs of the Company are beginning to assume a much brighter appearance. In a recent speech the General said:

To complete the graduation and masonry to Nicholasville would require less than $40,000, at present contract prices; and laying down the rails and distributing materials could be done for $500 per mile—say $67,500. Total, $107,500—not one-fourth as much as has already been expended.

From Nicholasville to the Kentucky river—8½ miles—there had been expended for graduation, masonry, tunneling, &c., $85,676.94 for right of way, water stations, &c., an average of $1,200 per mile, equal to $101,000. Total $35,576.94. In addition to which nearly all the cross-ties were already on the line, ready to be laid down.

He then described the magnificent wire bridge across the chasm of the Kentucky river, which in rapid progress toward completion, the like of which was not to be found on this continent. It was 275 feet above the bed of the river and 1,200 from tower to tower, standing upon eternal cliffs on either side, and so stiffened and stayed, as never to be in danger of anything short of an earthquake or some equally potent convulsion of nature.

The following beautiful tribute to Miss Elvira Blancagniel, a young lady who died in Louisville, several weeks ago, appeared in the Courier on the 15th inst.:

A LAST TRIBUTE TO ELVIRA.—Bright, beautiful and gifted one, thou art gone! thy earthly career is over! No more will thy bright eye beam on us, or that smile of joy welcome our approach. That soft and silver voice no more will sound upon our ear—no more will thy sunny smile, for all who knew thee loved thee. Thou wert like a bright and beautiful flower, for thou didst bud and blossom, but ere thy summer was o'er thou wast transplanted to a brighter and more beautiful garden than this cold world possessed of; for the perfume of heart is blossomed, thou art now in Paradise, and that voice so dear to us here below, doth join with the angels in their Heavenly choir, as they mingle round the throne of our Heavenly Father. As I pressed my lips upon thy cold, cold brow, I knew that we should never meet again on earth, but at twilight, when all nature is hushed in calm repose, my spirit would be with thee, thou much loved friend.

But thou art happy, thou art blessed, Thou leavest on thy Savior's breast, Thy earthly troubles now are o'er; Farewell; dear friend, for evermore.

LOUISVILLE, NOV. 14. ANNIE.

Mr. Charles Singleton, of Russell county, accidentally shot himself while hunting, a few days since, from the effects of which he died in a few minutes afterwards.

MASONS MUST NOT FIGHT.—According to the Masonic Register, the following resolution has passed the Grand Lodge of California:

Resolved, That the practice of duelling is repugnant to the principles of Freemasonry and in all cases where the brethren resort to this mode of settling their disputes, it becomes the duty of the Lodge or Lodges of which they are members, or under whose jurisdiction they may be, forthwith to expel them from all the rights or privileges of masonry, subject to the confirmation of the Grand Lodge, and no brother who may fall in a duel shall be buried with Masonic honors.

The following was also passed:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Grand Lodge that the use of masonic emblems upon signboards is un-masonic, and in open violation of the spirit of freemasonry.

We find in our exchanges the following caution:

The Masonic Fraternity and the public generally, are cautioned against a man calling himself Richard Henry Lee, who says he was a chaplain at Fort Inge, Texas, that he is now on his way to Washington, D. C. He is no doubt a base impostor and great scoundrel, and is traveling from Lodge to Lodge asking aid as a distressed Master Mason.

LATER FROM TEXAS.—The steamer Charles Morgan, Capt. Lawless, arrived at New Orleans on the 15th inst., from Indiana and Galveston, bringing Texas dates to the 11th.

The Galveston News has an article in relation to the calling out of the rangers, which we copy, because so far as our observation extends, the News in this instance, expresses the opinions on the subject generally entertained in Texas.

The only sensible course to be pursued is to make war on the Indians, which is now fully justified by the frequency of their attacks on the settlements and travelers, together with their defiant tone and undisguised hostility. Tampering with them by treaties, has only served to lead them to suspect the whites of cowardice and to encourage their atrocities. When overpowered, the wily savage will profess the greatest friendship, and cunningly declare his desire for peace and treaties, if necessary, or prospect of presents make it to his advantage, but still at heart he thirsts for blood and his fingers itch for stealing.

We cannot doubt that the action of Gov. Pease will be sustained by the people.

The Galveston News, referring to the statement of the Civilian, (which we copied,) respecting the deposit for the Pacific Railroad contract, says:

Whatever doubts there may be about the authority of the Governor to decide on the sufficiency of the deposit during the sixty days after the contract was made, there can be none as to the complete control of matters which that time expired. We have been favored with the authority of the Civilian's statement and can fully endorse its remarks as to the opinions and action of the Governor.

We learn from the Washington Ranger that the Brazos river rose ten feet on the night of the 5th inst. Steamboats were therefore expected to arrive soon with supplies of flour and groceries, which were much needed in town and country.

The memory of the terrible catastrophe which befell the steamer Henry Clay is recalled this morning by the report which we publish of the death of Captain G. H. POWELL, of the Henry Clay, who was lost on that occasion, and the owners of the steamer for $5,000 damages for the loss of Mr. Downing's life, and $1,000 for the loss of his baggage. It was ascertained that the prosecution could not establish their case fully, so far as regarded the cause of death, and therefore that part of the prosecution was dropped. The case turned upon the bill of damages for the loss of property. The jury had been deliberating for the company for the full amount claimed.—N. Y. Times.

ANOTHER INDIAN BUTCHERY.—We copy the following from the San Antonio Ledger of the 2d instant:

On Sunday evening Mr. ST. WILLIAMS, living on the Medina, about fourteen miles from this city, was cruelly murdered by a party of six Indians. It seems that he had gone from his house for water, and soon after his wife, hearing him shout for assistance, ran to the spot, and found that the cruel work had been done; her husband was killed. The Indians then carried to the house, robbed it of its contents, and carried off their three children. They left the house a short time, and sat down to enjoy a feast served up with the most shocking cruelty. Mrs. Williams followed them, and by entreaty succeeded in getting from them her two youngest children, but carried off with them, and is still a captive among them.—They also drove off the horses of Mr. WILLIAMS. Mrs. WILLIAMS started off to neighboring house almost frantic with grief, scarcely knowing where or for what she was going. After wandering about, lost and bewildered, for the whole of Sunday night, about daylight she came up to the house of Mr. CARTWRIGHT.

Several citizens of the neighborhood started off immediately in pursuit. We have not yet heard whether or not it is likely that the Indians would be overtaken, but would rather think that they will make their escape.

The news reached our city about noon on Monday, when a company of fifteen or twenty regulars, under the command of Capt. CALDWELL, was sent out.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24. The steamer Hermann, which sailed from Havre and Southampton on the 8th inst., arrived at this port this morning.

We have later dates by the Canada, at Halifax, but find some additional items of interest in the papers by her.

Reinforcements under Gen. Dannenberg were approaching Sebastopol.

Onat Pasha had sent 30,000 men to Varna, probably to reinforce the allies in the Crimea.

A Russian dispatch says that on the 23rd and 24th of October the weather in the Black Sea was terrific.

The allied fleet was obliged to run out to sea, and the besieging forces were unable to keep up the bombardment.

Mr. Soule was in Paris on the 7th, en route for Bordeaux. The French government, in withdrawing the prohibition, intimates that no disrespect was intended to the United States, but that the exclusion was entirely on private grounds.

The grand jury has found an indictment against Geo. Cooper and J. B. Taylor for libel on J. W. Baker, the Know-Nothing candidate for mayor of this city at the late election.—contained in some publications in the Tribune.

Ex-Recorder Tallmadge has commenced suits against the proprietors of the Courier & Enquirer and Tribune for libels.

The ship Onat Pasha arrived at Quarantine today from Antwerp. She reports sixty-six cases of cholera on board during the passage.—Thirty-six of them were fatal.

The libel suit, Fry vs. Bennett, of the Herald, was concluded yesterday in the Supreme Court. The Court refused to grant a new trial on the application of the defendant—Bennett will have to face the music.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24. The American ship Brother Jonathan was wrecked on Port Affry Rocks, after coming in collision with the William Penn.

The adjourned convention of railway delegates met at the Astor House last night, and passed a series of important resolutions in regard to baggage going off their lines. The free pass question was not disposed of. The convention adjourned to meet again next month.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24. The refusal to-day to grant a new trial to Beal, the defendant, so he will have to suffer the penalty of the law.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. We have a dispatch from New Orleans this evening, which quotes pork at $23 per barrel.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. The Bark Johannes arrived at this port today from Hamburg. She reports twenty deaths on board during the passage, out of a total of 300.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. The New York post-office robber, Fitz Gibbons, has been suspected for several years past. Sandy traps had been set to catch him. When arrested he had two packages of money in his pocket, mailed at Newark, N. J.—one directed to Bridgeport, the other to Williamsburg, Long Island.

The contents were between $3,000 and $4,000. He had other money in his pocket, amounting in all to some $500 or $600.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 23. Wm. H. Martin, who has been the principal distributing clerk in this city for the last twenty years, has been detected in robbing the letters passing through his hands of the money they contained. He was detected through the agency of a decoy letter, and on his house being searched the letter and the money it contained were found. His salary was $1,000 per annum. His house-keeper furnished in the most extravagant manner and his living in the style in which he did has excited the suspicion that these depredations have probably been going on for several years.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 23. Considerable feeling has been excited here with regard to the escape of a novice from the Sisterhood at Emmet's Bay, named Miss J. Bankley. She escaped at 3 o'clock on the morning of the 10th, and is the daughter of Joseph Bankley, of Norfolk, a Protestant. It is reported that she wished to dissolve her connection with the Sisterhood, and expressed a desire to return home. She then wrote her father a letter which was discovered before her eyes, and she was compelled to write another in a different strain, declaring the satisfaction she felt in being where she was. This letter deceived her father as to the facts of the case, and all his letters in return were consequently handed to her unopened.

Aware that she was a prisoner, Miss Bankley, determined to escape, and finally succeeded in doing so by climbing through a sash over the place of her confinement. She then walked ten miles to Creadstone, where she communicated with her father, who came for her.
